This hand book is concerned or the characteristics of the various forms of the art. See Each section is divided into two parts which may be called the theoretical and the practical.
Theoretical part: consists of a general introduction to the study of heraldry, followed by a detailed account of the various heraldic symbols used in heraldry, such as the shield, crest, motto, and supporters. Practical part: consists of a series of exercises designed to help the student learn how to draw heraldic symbols correctly. The exercises include the drawing of heraldic shields, crests, mottos, and supporters, as well as the construction of heraldic scrolls and banners. The book also includes a glossary of heraldic terms and a bibliography of books on heraldry.

Concedit ut nuptia geruntur hodie Sicut in diuinis pauci vocati In patre. O domine precor pro nobis Natus tenet nomen illius redemptoris Cuiusmodi in aliis uite dicitur ut regnus In nomine Ihesu Christi regnum
